Dear Dick:

On behalf of everyone present for the joint meeting of the Southeastern and Atlanta Chapters of the American Association of Law Libraries, let me express enthusiastic appreciation for the very fine presentation that you made on Friday of last week in Nashville. While the presentations and participation of all of the speakers were essential to making our program successful, I am sure that your presentations on Friday morning were an essential condition precedent to everything that followed on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. Your thoughts and words were very well thought out; everything flowed clearly and effectively throughout. You never once lost your audience; you kept each of us waiting to grasp your next point.

Everyone benefited greatly from your presence; I hope that you came away with the same sense of satisfaction as speaker that we received by being in the audience on Friday morning.

I understand from Howard Hood that you have already received your stipend. Your request for reimbursement for your various expenses should be forwarded to Ed Edmonds, Secretary-Treasurer, Southeastern Chapter, AALL, Marshall-Wythe Law Library, College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, VA 23185.

Again, many thanks; best regards.

Sincerely,

Edwin M. Schroeder
